Noble Community Initiative by Fortis Hospital, Noida for bank customers

Noida, 15th November, 2016: Fortis Hospital, Noida in its journey to serve the community has taken yet another great initiative to support the National priorities set out by the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India for denomination of 500 & 1000 rupees notes.

40 volunteers from Fortis Hospital, Noida lead by Zonal Director of Fortis Hospital, Noida Mr. Gagan Sehgal and key people from administration wearing Fortis branded T-shirts gathered today to lay their hands. Volunteers got into groups of 2/3 and offered water mineral water bottles, juice packets and biscuits to common public who were standing in long queues since early morning.

40 bank branches and ATMs were covered across Noida. The Hospital thanked general public for their patience to help build a stronger nation. Refreshments were offered where needed with priorities given to women, children and senior citizens. The response was overwhelming and Fortis Hospital, Noida earned a lot of appreciation and goodwill.
